

Maynooth University Ollscoil Mhá Nuad

Irish Research Electronic Library (IReL) Project Support Officer (Senior Executive Assistant) (Specified Purpose Contract)

The Role

Maynooth University is committed to a strategy in which the primary University goals of excellent research and scholarship and outstanding education are interlinked and equally valued.

The University is host to the the shared national service, the Irish Research e-Library (IReL). IReL provides member institutions access to a wide range of research information resources, open access publishing services and open research infrastructure.

IReL is seeking to appoint a Project Support Officer to oversee the administration and execution of a broad range of activities centred around the development and expansion of IReL services.

Principal Duties

Administrative and other duties:

This will include:

- Providing a wide range of administrative support to the IReL team and IReL Committees and groups, to include scheduling, minute taking, drafting of papers, event management etc.;
- Working with contractors and stakeholders to ensure that IReL projects are well scoped and documented, appropriately communicated and delivered in a timely manner;
- Information gathering and compiling best practice from IReL members and peer consortia;
- Any other duties or projects as allocated by the Director of IReL or their nominee.

The ideal candidate will have:

Essential

- Primary degree or equivalent professional experience (i.e., a minimum of 5 years relevant administrative experience, preferably in the research sector);

- Proven ability to work on own initiative, to manage several issues simultaneously, to meet strict deadlines;
- Project management skills and experience;
- Excellent IT skills (Microsoft Office 365);
- The ability to work with accuracy and attention to detail;
- Well-developed interpersonal, and oral and written communication skills.

Desirable

- A project management qualification
- Experience working in research libraries or within scholarly publishing

Faculty and Research Institutes

IReL is a consortium of Irish research libraries. Established in 2004, it provides participating member institutions with access to a wide range of licensed e-resources, open access publishing agreements with over twenty publishers, and open science infrastructure. Funded by the Department of Further and Higher Education, Research, Innovation, and Science, IReL is hosted by Maynooth University and its activities are overseen by a governance committee with representation from a range of stakeholders.

The University

Maynooth University is a very distinctive university, a collegial institution focused on science and engineering, humanities, and social sciences, and equally committed to research, teaching and community engagement. Located in Ireland's only university town, its distinctive features and character owe much to its unique history and heritage. It provides a high-quality educational experience to over 15,000 students on a campus with 18th century roots and 21st century dynamism.

The strategic trajectory and accomplishments of Maynooth University, in the 25 years since its establishment as an autonomous public university, are exceptional, and a source of great pride to the university community, staff, students and alumni. Maynooth University in 2024 ranked in the top 90 global Times Higher Education (THE) Young University rankings, placing 86th in the world. Maynooth University's growing global reputation is based on the originality, quality, importance and impact of its research and scholarship, commitment to teaching and learning, the quality of academic programmes, and its leadership in widening participation in higher education. The sources of success are the dedication of its staff and the energy and engagement of its students.

Maynooth University is a place of lively contrasts – a modern institution, dynamic, rapidly-growing, research-led and engaged, yet grounded in historic academic strengths and scholarly traditions. With over 15,000 students Maynooth offers a range of programmes at undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral level in the humanities, science and engineering and social sciences, including business, law and education. The University also offers a range of international programmes and partnerships.

Maynooth's unique collegial culture fosters an interdisciplinary approach to research, which its world-class academics bring to bear in tackling some of the most fundamental challenges facing society today. The University's research institutes and centres consolidate and deliver this impact as vibrant communities of learning, discovery and creation. Research at Maynooth also is very much central to its teaching and the University prides itself on placing equal value on its research and teaching missions.

Maynooth University's Values

Our values define who we are, what we believe in and how we act as a community. They underpin our future success and guide our expectations of ourselves and each other. Our values apply to everyone in the University community:

- Integrity
- Collegiality
- Responsibility
- Freedom of expression
- Ambition

Maynooth University Strategic Plan 2023 – 2028

The University's Strategic Plan 2023 - 2028 builds on our rich academic history and strong foundations to set out an ambitious and forward-looking path for the future of our University. This roadmap underscores our commitment to adapt to a changing world while staying true to our values.

Our vision is to be a university of excellence, opportunity and impact, having a significant stake in all three.
