Careers and Employability Service, Office of Student Skills and Success Experiential Learning Officer (Specified Purpose Contract)

The Role

Maynooth University is committed to a strategy in which the primary University goals of excellent research and scholarship and outstanding education are interlinked and equally valued.

The Careers and Employability Service (CES) within the Student Skills and Success division of the Office of Students and Learning is currently seeking a self-motivated, flexible and dedicated individual for the role of Experiential Learning Officer (Maternity Cover). This individual will have responsibility for the operational leadership, oversight and management of a range of experiential learning and employability offerings within the Careers and Employability Service. This includes programme delivery, collaboration with staff, students and employers, and workshops. The role supports the Careers and Employability Service and the Maynooth University's strategic plan (2023-2028) and its core mission, "To imagine and create better futures for all," enabling our graduates to become "highly employable next generation creators and decision-makers."

Principal Duties

Administrative and other duties:

This will include:

- Directing, designing, developing, delivering, assessing and evaluating a portfolio of curricular and co-curricular experiential learning and employability programmes in collaboration with academic, community, not for profit, industry and alumni partners.
- Collaborating with funding partners as required.
- Ensuring that efficient and effective policies, procedures and processes are in place for the governance, awards, review and conduct of experiential learning and to meet the current and future needs of stakeholders.
- Driving and championing technological developments to advance the embedding of employability and professional development.
- Building, nurturing and developing mutually beneficial and sustainable stakeholder partnerships and collaborations to enhance the University's experiential learning and employability offering;
- Representing the University on relevant professional and academic associations and committees, both internally and externally.
- Keeping abreast of best practice in experiential learning and employability provision internationally and use this to develop MU's experiential learning and employability offering further;
- Accountable for the financial management of the budget for experiential learning programmes, including budgeting, planning, monitoring and reporting.
- Line managing a team of experiential learning professionals, mentoring, coaching, motivating and guiding the team towards delivering on the experiential learning agenda.
- Other such duties as may reasonably be assigned from time to time by the Head of the Careers and Employability Service.

The ideal candidate will have:

Essential

- An undergraduate level 8 qualification.
- Minimum three years' relevant work experience in learning and development, project management or business development environments, with a proven track record in partnership building, stakeholder engagement, and collaborative project delivery, ideally in a higher education context.
- Strong organisational, project management skills with the ability to work calmly under pressure, prioritise tasks, and meet deadlines.
- Excellent communication, interpersonal, oral and written skills, with the ability to build rapport, strategically influence and engage people at all levels, and in different organisations, in a positive and proactive way.
- Solutions-focused, adaptable, and proactive, with a positive approach to problem-solving and change initiatives.
- Strong research and analytical skills with the ability to interpret and present complex data and information and produce reports for diverse audiences.
- Strong technical skills competence with proficiency in a VLE (e.g., Moodle), LMS, EPortfolios, social media and Microsoft Office, as well as a knowledge of key digital applications, AI and their relevance to education and professional development.

- Ability to lead, motivate and manage individuals both within a team and in a non-reporting line structure so that resources are optimised within teams to maximise results and achieve desired performance.

Desirable

- A postgraduate or professional qualification in a relevant area.
- Experience of working in a third level education institution in a similar role.

Department

Student Skills and Success

Student Skills and Success plays a central role in enabling MU students to fulfil their potential by partnering with them to understand their experiences and perspectives. The unit supports students in navigating the complexities of university life, fostering a sense of belonging, and encouraging them to embrace the full range of opportunities MU offers. Through this support, students are empowered to thrive, make the most of their time at MU, and imagine and create a better future. This unit comprises Student Success and Engagement (including Orientation), Academic and Programme Advisory, Academic Writing Support Services, and the Careers and Employability Service.

Office for Students and Learning

The Office for Students and Learning champions student engagement and co-creation, ensuring that the student voice underpins the strategic direction of educational activities. It also provides strategic guidance through the Centre for Teaching and Learning, driving educational enhancement initiatives grounded in research and best practices. Additionally, it oversees the University's teaching and learning function, supporting staff in teaching, assessment, and student support. The office is the university driver for student employability and success through Student Skills and Success, which includes the Careers and Employability Service. It works very closely with other teams across the University to support students and is committed to the health and well-being of students, leading the development of comprehensive support systems, collaborating closely with the Maynooth Students' Union, and championing a positive student experience.

The University

Maynooth University is a very distinctive university, a collegial institution focused on science and engineering, humanities, and social sciences, and equally committed to research, teaching and community engagement. Located in Ireland's only university town, its distinctive features and character owe much to its unique history and heritage. It provides a high-quality educational experience to over 17,000 students on a campus with 18th century roots and 21st century dynamism.

Maynooth University is a place of lively contrasts – a modern institution, dynamic, rapidly-growing, research-led and engaged, yet grounded in historic academic strengths and scholarly traditions. We offer a range of programmes at undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral level in the humanities, science and engineering and social sciences, including business, law and education, along with a range of international programmes and partnerships.

The strategic trajectory and accomplishments of Maynooth University, since its establishment as an autonomous public university, are exceptional and a source of great pride to the university community, staff, students and alumni. Maynooth University ranked in the top 90 global Times Higher Education (THE) Young University rankings in 2024. Maynooth University's growing global reputation is based on the originality, quality, importance and impact of its research and scholarship, commitment to teaching and learning, the quality of academic programmes, and its leadership in widening participation in higher education. The sources of success are the dedication of its staff and the energy and engagement of its students.
